

From The President ...

I want to take a minute to talk about our volunteers. You see them each time you come to see a show and probably recognize them by face more than by name. They could be checking you in or serving you champagne, seating you or giving out playbills.

Our volunteers, both on the floor and on stage, are like a family. We become friends and share life stories during our volunteering jobs. Whether you are an usher or an actor or a production volunteer, you are an intricate piece of what makes this theater operate professionally.

Each person is valuable and makes an important contribution. Losing a volunteer is like losing your arm or your leg. It is personal. It is sad. It is profound.

This year I want to acknowledge two of our volunteers who passed away this summer.

Pam Hood and her husband Larry are part of our usher family. You may remember Pam. She was all of 5 feet tall with short blond hair. She was usually seating people, always with a smile. Pam was a retired nurse and joined our theater family two years ago. She will be missed by us all.

Another loss for us was my mother, Annette. She was called Momma Rose by our actors. Just like Pam, who was her dear friend, Mother passed away in July after a short illness. At 96, she was determined to return to her theater work. She was passionate about the theater and spoke to everyone who would listen about coming here to see our shows or to audition or to volunteer.

Pam and my mother were family.... in more ways than one. They will surely be missed.
